“We’ve had a tremendous success. The safety rate at our new facility was lower than the industry average. We made money in less than a year. We’ve had an excellent start-up and I’m firmly convinced that readySC™ played a major role in our success. I don’t see how we could have done it without them.”

customized solutions for new and expanding companies.

For more than 40 years, readySC™, formerly known as the Center for Accelerated Technology Training or CATT, has been recognized as one of the nation’s premier economic development training programs.

We are ready to help organizations start-up quickly and efficiently in today’s competitive environment providing custom designed solutions such as workforce recruiting and testing, curriculum and materials development, innovative training design and delivery and experienced project management throughout the entire process—all of this at little to no cost to you.

readySC™ is ready to provide companies relocating to or expanding in South Carolina with our unparalleled start-up expertise, our truly customized training solutions, our innovative training delivery and our never-ending commitment to responsiveness and flexibility.

All of this together culminates in a true economic value for our client organizations.

unmatched start-up expertise.

Many states offer quality workforce development training. South Carolina offers more. We offer unmatched start-up expertise. readySC™ helps over 100 organizations each year successfully start-up greenfield operations or expand existing facilities in South Carolina.

We know what it takes to provide you with employees that have the necessary skills, knowledge and abilities to get your operation up and running successfully. And we are ready to provide your organization with this unique set of skills demanded for successful start-ups.

Many client organizations credit readySC™ with the ultimate success of their start-up initiative.

Whether you are creating 20 or 2,000 jobs, readySC™ knows how to take our expertise and match it to your specific skills requirements and timeframes.

“We were tasked with starting up a 305,000 square foot facility with 600 new employees in basically a year and a half. The challenge for us was daunting. But with the help of the readySC™ team, it was seamless—we hit the ground running.”

 JIM DALY
RELIABLE AUTOMATIC SPRINKLER COMPANY

“The readySC™ team followed us throughout the entire process from beginning to end. Our project manager was there every step of the way holding our hands so to speak. I think the amount of involvement, effort and expertise that readySC™ places into developing their program is extremely unique.”

 LUANN BANNISTER

a unique project management approach.

South Carolina is one of the few states in the nation that provides project management staff for the duration of the training project providing an invaluable asset to our clients.

Clients have a local, knowledgeable project manager that knows the scope of the project, the challenges faced, the deadlines set and all of the tasks necessary to meet the set project goals. This project manager is able to leverage the services and experience of the entire SC Technical College System.

Our project managers have years of experience in workforce development training and bring to each project a high level of professionalism and expertise. They also bring a “whatever it takes” mentality that ensures the success of each project.

We are ready to put our unique project management approach to work for your organization.

an innovative training development model.

readySC™'s proven training development model - Our 3-D Process consists of three phases designed to expertly provide the necessary skills, abilities and knowledge to make your project successful.

Discovery. readySC™ works with your Subject Matter Experts to determine the skills, knowledge and abilities needed...And to define the culture and working environment you want to create at your new facility.

Design. We then design training to meet your specific needs. Team-based? Five-S? GMP? readySC™ doesn't just deliver these individual courses; we can integrate their principles into every facet of the training so that your training plan is customized specifically to you. Our goal is to help you start production with employees who are already immersed in your culture and processes. We develop our curriculum based on your timeframe – whether your schedule allows for in-depth task analysis and comprehensive training solutions or just-in-time development and delivery, readySC™ provides the training solution that is right for you.

Delivery. readySC™ is completely flexible in our delivery options...Hands-on simulations of your working environment; computer based training; workstation training; virtual recreations of your work processes; hand-held video delivery options; one-on-one training and mentoring; or classroom training.

We're ready to work with you to determine the right solution for your organization.

“South Carolina’s workforce development model is best in class. The whole process from our company’s standpoint allows us to make sure that we have the right people trained at the right place at the right time with the right motivation. South Carolina does this better than any other state that we do business in.”

 TOM STUBBINS
VOUGHT AIRCRAFT INDUSTRIES, INC.
DREAMLINER 787 PROJECT

“Time and time again, readySC™ demonstrated flexibility and responsiveness in meeting our demanding and aggressive timeframes. We will have 1100 employees on board within a year and readySC™ has accommodated us with no bumps in the road. We have been very happy and very impressed.”

a steadfast commitment to flexibility and responsiveness.

We understand that not all variables are known. We understand that plans change and more often than not these changes occur at the last minute with little warning. That's why readySC™ is structured to adapt to these changes and respond to your needs and timeframes...no matter how tight.

Our end goal is a successful project for your organization. To that end, our professionals are always accessible and willing to work with you to best respond to the latest challenge presented. Our client companies often credit us with being able to “turn on a dime.”

We are ready to put this steadfast commitment to flexibility and responsiveness to work for you.

a real economic value for your organization.

All of our services culminate in a real economic value for your organization. From a quick, successful start up to reduced turnover. From a qualified, motivated workforce to low safety numbers. From seamlessly transferring knowledge from your existing organizations to delivering world-class training programs customized specifically to your organization. readySC™ delivers value - at little to no cost for you.

We are able to do this because we strive to develop true partnerships with our client organizations. Your goals become our goals. Your success is our success. We work closely with you to understand the challenges you face and develop solutions to overcome them successfully.

What does it take to realize this economic value for your organization? Any organization creating new jobs for our state with competitive wage and benefit packages qualifies. It's that simple!

We are ready to partner with you...are you ready to partner with us?

“Our experience with readySC™ far exceeded our expectations. They truly became partners in training and recruiting with us. I found the readySC™ approach to be very innovative and creative. It made a significant difference in our start-up allowing us to hit the ground running.”
